CMS Issues Revised Nursing Home Regulations

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) issued a final rule on September 28, 2016 that revised the requirements that long-term care facilities must meet in order to participate in the Medicare and Medicaid programs. The regulations were effective on November 28, 2016 and will be implemented in three phases. Regulations included in Phase 1 were to be implemented by November 28, 2016, regulations included in Phase 2 must be implemented by November 28, 2017, and regulations included in Phase 3 must be implemented by November 28, 2019 (click here for the implementation timeframe chart).

CMS released an advance copy of the State Operations Manual (SOM), Appendix PP - Guidance to Surveyors for Long-Term Care Facilities that incorporates the revised regulations and that must be used for survey on and after November 28, 2016 (review the CMS Survey and Certification 17-07-NH memo for more information). The interpretative guidance has not been updated, but will be revised in the near future.

Some of these changes impact the operation of Ombudsman programs. For example, the new requirement that facilities must send a copy of all transfer and discharges notices to a “representative of the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman” [483.15(c)(3)(i)] will directly impact Ombudsman programs and those they serve (see the TA Hot Topic article below for more information).

NORC created a side-by-side chart with references to the Ombudsman Program in the revised regulations and related language from the preamble compared to previous regulations. The chart shows which requirements are new and indicates whether the regulations are included in Phase 1 or 2.

Also, Consumer Voice created a new resource that provides a brief overview of key changes in three sections.
of regulations in Phase 1 (Resident Rights; Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation; and Admission, Transfer and Discharge Rights).

Additional resources and information regarding the revised regulations will be available in the future, so continue to check our website for updates and let us know if you have any questions or information to share.

After they... have completed their internship (usually 120 or 240 hours) the student is required to complete a project based on an issue experienced during the internship. The instructor is then provided with an evaluation of the student's performance.

Technical Assistance (TA) Hot Topic

Discharge Notices to Ombudsman Programs

Beginning November 28, 2016, all nursing homes receiving Medicaid or Medicare must send a copy of all discharge notices to a representative of the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program [483.15(c)(3)(i)]. This new requirement is one of many contained in the Requirements for Participation released on September 28, 2016, by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS).

In response to this new requirement, State Ombudsman programs will need to consider several program management issues and advocacy strategies related to the receipt of all discharge notices, such as:

- How will the program receive these notices?
  - Will they be sent to the State Ombudsman or directly to local representatives?
Sent via fax, email, regular mail? Will there be a separate email address for discharge notices?

How will this process be shared with nursing homes and the state survey agency?

What will the program do with these notices?

- Who will review them and determine when action is needed?
- How will notices, and your program’s response, be prioritized?
- How will the State Ombudsman determine when the program will be proactive and contact the resident to see if he/she wants assistance based on the notice received?
- What will the program do, if anything, if the notice is incomplete or incorrect?

How will the program track these notices to determine trends and potential issues for systems advocacy (e.g., reasons for discharge, facilities in a specific region/city sending a large number of discharges, facilities in the same chain sending similar discharge notices, etc.)?

The revised regulations were recently incorporated into the State Operations Manual (SOM), Appendix PP - Guidance to Surveyors for Long-Term Care Facilities. The provisions regarding transfer/discharge notices are found in F-tag 203 below, the new language is in red.

Resources and examples of Ombudsman program advocacy related to discharges is available on the NORC website.

LTCO Volunteer Management

Top Characteristics of the Best Volunteers

Ombudsman volunteer managers across the country were recently asked to list the top characteristics of their best volunteers. Their responses are listed below. These traits describe someone who would likely excel at being an advocate for residents, resolving complaints, and building relationships.

While your goal may be to have enough volunteers to enhance access to your program and increase facility visits, due to the unique role and responsibilities of Ombudsman program representatives ensuring quality rather than quantity is critical. There are many topics and skills included in the training of volunteers; however, most of the characteristics in the list cannot be taught although some may be enhanced with training and practice. When you are interviewing potential volunteers, do you see some of the characteristics in the list? If not, perhaps the individual is not a good fit for the ombudsman role. It is better to make that determination up front rather than having to let someone go later in response to issues that arise.

Top Characteristics

- Ability to make friends (helps build a cohesive group)
- Caring
• Committed to the mission
• Compassionate
• Curious
• Creative/thoughtful problem solvers
• Dedication
• Dependability
• Desire to learn/enhance their skills
• Eager to help others
• Empathetic
• Empowered to help
• Ethical
• Good communicator
• Good listener
• Inquisitive
• Interested
• Non-judgmental
• Passionate
• Patient
• Persistent, persuasive
• Relates well
• Reliable
• Responsible
• Seeks support
• Takes initiative
• Trusting
• Understanding

(And, just for fun, how many of these characteristics describe YOU?)

NORC Resources

There are resources on the NORC website to assist you in updating your applications, as well as examples of screening tools and interview questions, that can help identify these important characteristics. Several webinars and other materials on the website also talk about the importance of screening and finding the right match for your program (Supporting Volunteer Ombudsmen and Minimizing Risk and Modernizing Your Program to Attract and Retain Today’s Volunteer).

Quick Tips!

Training Videos

Training for program representatives is critical for maintaining an effective long-term care ombudsman program. Ombudsman programs have asked NORC for available training videos and materials and the list below includes several of the most recent videos and DVDs NORC has either produced or collected. If your program has a video to share, please let us know.

Long-Term Care Ombudsman Casework: Advocacy and Communication Skills
The purpose of this video is to review LTCO complaint investigation procedures and demonstrate resident-directed advocacy and effective communication skills during the complaint process that are applicable to all aspects of LTCO work. Voices Speak Out Against Retaliation Connecticut’s Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program (LTCOP) initiated a statewide work group and also commissioned the University of Connecticut Health Center to study fear of retaliation in skilled nursing facilities. That study concluded that Retaliation and the Fear of Retaliation... is a reality in any supportive housing situation. Retaliation can be either egregious or subtle; many forms of retaliation may not even be recognized by residents or staff. Therefore, as one part of a comprehensive awareness initiative, LTCOP designed the Voices Speak Out Against Retaliation training video to acknowledge that Fear of Retaliation is a reality for individuals living in skill nursing facilities.
