State Long-Term Care Ombudsmen Quoted in Articles Related to COVID-19

Nevada State Ombudsman, Jennifer Williams-Woods, is interviewed by The Nevada Independent on handling complaints from afar during COVID-19. (June 15, 2020)

New Jersey State Ombudsman, Laurie Brewer, is interviewed by Nj.com on social isolation in nursing homes during COVID-19. (June 15, 2020)

California State Ombudsman, Joseph Rodrigues, is interviewed by ABC on elder abuse reports during COVID-19. (June 8, 2020)

Pennsylvania State Ombudsman, Margaret Barajas, interviewed by Spotlight PA on stimulus checks in nursing homes. (June 2, 2020)

Maryland State Ombudsman, Stevanne Ellis, interviewed by The Baltimore Sun on COVID-19 in nursing homes. (May 29, 2020)

Rhode Island State Ombudsman, Kathy Heren, is interviewed by the Providence Journal on stimulus checks in nursing homes. (May 29, 2020)

Texas State Ombudsman, Patty Ducayet, is interviewed by The Austin Chronicle on nursing homes combating COVID-19. (May 22, 2020)

Ohio State Ombudsman, Beverley Laubert, is interviewed by Cleveland.com on long-term care staffing during COVID-19. (May 21, 2020)

West Virginia State Ombudsman, Suzanne Messenger, is interviewed by West Virginia Public Broadcasting on nursing home concerns during COVID-19. (May 21, 2020)

New Jersey State Ombudsman, Laurie Brewer, is interviewed by The Washington Post about rising COVID-19 cases in nursing homes. (April 29, 2020)

Rhode Island State Ombudsman, Kathy Heren, is interviewed by WPRI Eyewitness News on advocating to keep residents safe and connected during the Coronavirus pandemic. (April 8, 2020)

Michigan State Ombudsman, Salli Pung, is interviewed by NPR in the segment Coronavirus: Nursing Homes and the Elderly. (April 7, 2020)