

TALK TO YOUR OMBUDSMAN...

about concerns for your loved one, such as:

- Resident Rights
- Quality of Care
- Admissions
- Privacy Needs
- Medicare
- Medicaid
- Medications
- Meals
- Transfers
- Discharges

TENNESSEE OMBUDSMAN PROGRAM

for long-term care

Advocates for the Elderly

The Tennessee Ombudsman Program offers confidential services to residents, families, and others with long-term care facility concerns.

FOR HELP WITH QUESTIONS...
PROBLEMS...
COMPLAINTS...

CALL YOUR LOCAL LONG-TERM CARE OMBUDSMAN AT:

State Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program
Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability
500 Deaderick Street, Suite 825
Andrew Jackson Building
Nashville, TN 37243-0860
615-741-2056
Fax: 615-741-3309
1-877-236-0013
www.tennessee.gov/comaging

The Ombudsman program is authorized by the Older Americans Act. There are nine district programs throughout the state. There is no charge for Ombudsman services. However, Contributions to the program are appreciated and are used to provide additional services.

Tennessee Commission on Aging & Disability.
Authorization No. 316094, 2,500 copies, May 2007.
This public document was promulgated at a cost of $.33 per copy.